

BARI KOTHI
AZIMGANJ, MURSHIDABAD

Suite Classifications

At Bari Kothi, no two rooms are quite alike.

Our fifteen suites have been restored within the original rooms of the Kothi, each keeping its own proportions, textures and architectural character. Rather than fit the rooms to a template, we let the old house decide their shape.

The furniture carries its own history. Antique beds, cabinets, chairs and artefacts, many over a century old, have been restored and returned to the rooms they were meant to inhabit.

But restoration, for us, was never only about saving walls and wood. It was about saving memories.

Every room is dedicated to a member of the family who once lived within these walls. Their lives and times inspired the Room Stories, allowing those who belonged to Bari Kothi to remain part of the house.

Each suite comes with its own Suite Experience Guide, an invitation to discover the story behind the room, its objects and furniture, and the many ways to experience it.

Three categories offer different expressions of the Kothi, yet every suite remains deeply individual.

Because at Bari Kothi, you do not simply choose a room.

You become a part of its story.

Heritage Suites

APPROX. 300 SQ. FT. | INTIMATE. CHARACTERFUL. PERSONAL.

The Heritage Suites are an intimate introduction to life at Bari Kothi. Each occupies an original room, retaining its own proportions, textures and architectural detail.

Furnished with antiques gathered over generations, they remain a reminder that the Kothi was once a family home, where every room had a purpose and every object a place.

No two are alike. Some are cosier, others more open; some defined by their light, others by an architectural detail or a piece of furniture with a story of its own.

Small in scale, rich in character, and deeply connected to the story of the house.

Royal Heritage Suites

APPROX. 450 SQ. FT. | SPACIOUS. LAYERED. DISTINCTIVE.

The Royal Heritage Suites offer a more generous experience of the Kothi, their space shaped by the original architecture of two distinct blocks of the house.

Three lie within the Janana Block, the private quarters, where intimate proportions create warmth and seclusion. The remaining five sit in the Halwai Khana Block, each with its own architectural character.

Across both blocks, antique furniture and restored period detail create rooms that feel less like hotel suites and more like rooms returned to life.

Eight suites, two parts of the house, and eight distinct expressions of its history.

Maharaja Heritage Suites

APPROX. 750 SQ. FT. | GRAND. REGAL. IMMERSIVE.

The Maharaja Heritage Suites are the grandest expression of staying at Bari Kothi.

These expansive suites let the architecture and craftsmanship of the old house unfold around you. High ceilings, generous proportions, intricate detail and antique furnishings recall the grandeur of the Kothi's past.

Yet their grandeur is not recreated. It is inherited.

The original spaces, furniture and details have been carefully restored, so each suite retains the character of the room it once was.

A larger room, a deeper immersion, and a more expansive chapter of the Bari Kothi story.
